ANGUS RESERVE

BLACK ANGUS BEEF

Angus Reserve is Australia's Largest Verified Black Angus Beef brand.

Raised on some of the richest agricultural lands across Australia, our Black Angus beef suits a variety of markets and customer palates. All are finished on an exclusively formulated grainfed diet comprising wheat, corn and barley. Our award-winning Angus Reserve, with 2+ marbling, is unmatched for taste, guaranteed for tenderness, and full of flavour.

With over 40 years of experience in the Australian beef industry as a vertically integrated company, we own and operate key steps of our supply chain including lotfeeding and processing.

Because we work closely with each Angus farmer, you can be assured that we provide 100% traceability from our paddock to your plate. We are also fully graded by Meat Standards Australia, a world-leading eating quality system.

Experience the joy of eating Australia's largest verified black angus beef brand today.
